Virginia Alternate Assessment Program (VAAP)

Student Report

This report provides information about your student's performance on the Virginia Alternate Assessment Program (VAAP) tests in spring 2022. Performance on a VAAP assessment is one indicator of your student's progress in learning the content and skills represented in the Virginia Essentialized Standards of Learning (VESOL). The VESOL are linked to the Standards of Learning (SOL) and have been reduced in depth, breadth, and complexity to make the content relevant, accessible, and appropriate for students with significant cognitive disabilities. The VESOL and other details about VAAP are available online at <https://tinyurl.com/vaap-page>

Performance at a Glance

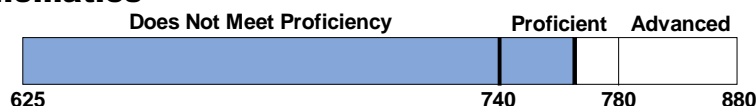

The VAAP tests that your student took are listed below. A summary of the academic knowledge and skills typically associated with the performance level your student achieved on each test is provided. The grade-level content assessed on the VAAP is found in the VESOL, and a more detailed description of the grade-level knowledge and skills typically associated with each performance level is found in the Performance Level Descriptors. These and other VAAP information are available online at <https://tinyurl.com/vaap-page>

Gr 3 Mathematics

Performance Level: Proficient
Test Scaled Score: 764

Performance Level Descriptor:

Performing at the Proficient level typically suggests a sufficient ability to demonstrate a basic understanding of (1) whole numbers and halves, including recognizing, matching, and comparing numbers using models, words, and symbols; adding, subtracting, or multiplying two whole numbers with a solution of 20 or less; (2) recognizing and counting coins up to 25 cents; (3) recognizing circles, squares, and triangles; comparing length, area, and volume of basic shapes; and telling time in whole hours; and (4) identifying and extending patterns and interpreting picture graphs.

Gr 3 Reading

Performance Level: Proficient
Test Scaled Score: 753

Performance Level Descriptor:

Based on sentences of fiction or nonfiction text read to or by the student, performing at the Proficient level typically suggests a sufficient ability to (1) identify words and understand their meaning and (2) answer different kinds of comprehension questions that may include main ideas, characters, settings, events, ideas, steps, and the beginning, middle, or end of text.
